Tom Smith™

A Great British tradition

Helping families celebrate Christmas since 1847!

Tom Smith, owned by IG Design Group UK Ltd, is a premium global brand in Christmas greetings products, including crackers, gift wrap, gift bags, greetings cards and accessories.

For 177 years, Christmas crackers have been a traditional part of Christmas festivities; the rich heritage and history of the brand, originating from the invention of the cracker by Tom Smith in 1847, propagates to the present day where Tom Smith design and manufacture over 50 million crackers annually for worldwide distribution.

Tom Smith crackers were granted their first Royal Warrant in 1906, and today the Tom Smith brand still holds a Royal Warrant of Appointment to Her Majesty The Queen as suppliers of Christmas crackers and wrapping paper.

Every year we research new trends to ensure our products are market leaders, ensuring that our offering remains classic and traditional in how they look and feel but also offering new innovative designs and concepts.

The Tom Smith range of crackers includes premium, deluxe, luxury and family ranges each carefully considered in their design and content.

Tom Smith luxury gift wrap and coordinating display units offer the ultimate gift wrapping solution. The collection provides the best selection of finishes.

Tom Smith Christmas cards are lovingly designed and include handmade, deluxe and luxury ranges.

Tom Smith's luxury ranges of coordinated gift bags perfectly complement our gift wrap. Our Christmas bags range is full of contemporary, classic and exciting designs and colours, all with themes and trends that match our other products.

WOODLAND TRUST

Tom Smith continues its partnership with The Woodland Trust, participating in a fully accredited carbon removal scheme, funding new native woodland in the UK to ensure the CO₂ emissions we create from our sea freight activity is fully absorbed from the atmosphere, mitigating the impact of our business imports on the environment as part of our carbon management programme.

Tom Smith is continuing to partner with the Trussell Trust, a charity focussed on ending hunger and poverty in the UK. The charity supports a nationwide network of food banks to provide emergency food to people locked in poverty whilst campaigning for change to end the need for food banks in the UK. To date, we have raised over £300,000.
